

California Winery Density by County

This map includes wine-grape growers who welcome public visitors to their vineyard location for wine tasting, tours, education, special events, or recreation. The businesses included in this map identify themselves as primarily wineries or wine-grape growers regardless of other production or agritourism activities.

