

ANR Publication Adaptation Approval

Step 1—Authors

Fill out this form and send it—along with the newly adapted manuscript—to your Associate Editor. Be sure to make your changes to the manuscript in such a way that your Associate Editor can easily see what information was deleted, moved or added. Using the “Track Changes” option in Microsoft Word works well for this.

Original publication title: _____

Original ANR Pub. #: _____ Year published: _____

Associate Editor: _____

Your name: _____

Email: _____

These new manuscripts are adapted from ANR peer-reviewed material. I wish it to be produced in the following ANR publication formats: (author, check one)

___ online

___ printed leaflet

(Don't forget to attach the adapted manuscript for the Associate Editor's reference.)

Step 2—Associate Editor

Please look over the adapted manuscript and return this form to the author with your decision: (check one)

_____ This adaptation does not require further ANR peer review. You may now send your manuscript to Ann Senuta, publications manager at Communication Services for production with this signed form.

_____ This adaptation requires additional ANR peer review. I will begin this process and communicate with you on its progress.

Date: _____

(Associate Editor signature)

Step 3—Communication Services

This material as approved for production (CS publications manager):

_____ new ANR Pub. No. _____ Date: _____