

What to do about harassment?

Any of these actions are appropriate and you do not need to complete one to proceed to another. The most important thing is to take action.

Option 1	Option 2	Option 3
Direct Approach	Report to Campus Authority	Report to Government Agency
Often, the most effective method to put an end to harassment is to tell the person to stop. Let the person know the action is unwelcome. Ignoring the situation will not make it go away.	Tell your supervisor EVERY supervisor has the legal obligation to receive reports of harassment.	California Equal Employment Rights & Resolution Office http://ag.ca.gov/eeo/index.php 1-800- 952-5225
	Contact the Campus Police If the harassment is in the form of a serious criminal assault, you may wish to report directly to the police.	U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) https://www.eeoc.gov/laws/types/harassment.cfm 1-800-669-4000
	Contact ANR Affirmative Action http://ucanr.org/sites/anrstaff/Diversity/Affirmative_Action	USDA Discrimination Complaint Filing http://www.ascr.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html