

Town Hall and Winter Faire

A virtual celebration
Thursday, December 17, 2020
2-4 PM

Zoom room opens at 1:30 with photo booth and a fun icebreaker!

All ANR academics and staff are invited to join for a short presentation from ANR leadership followed by two fun and engaging breakout sessions. Gift cards will be awarded throughout via raffles and winners of activities.

Register to Participate and Receive Zoom Information

1. Express your gratitude by completing a short Google doc before Dec. 15 to let us know if you're particularly grateful for an ANR colleague(s) or a team. You can also submit an inspiring ANR success story or what has kept you going during this challenging year. You could win a $20 gift card for completing the gratitude form.
2. People and Pets Festive Photo Parade: Submit up to 3 photos to Box (instructions at top of registration form) before Dec. 14. Submit a photo of whatever makes you feel festive and possibly win a $20 gift card.
3. Register so we can accurately plan. Review the breakout sessions, so you can indicate what you'd like to join. You will be able to move freely between breakout rooms during the event.
4. Get to know your colleagues bingo card will be available at 1:30 PM, so you can play along throughout the event.

Breakout Room Activities

- You can learn about ANR and your colleagues by participating in these engaging activities!
- Participants in each breakout will have a chance to win a gift card by participating or by winning a game.
- Activities are optional and you will be able to move between rooms.

Join Shane Feirer, Kathy Eftekhari and Anne Megaro to learn how you can use ARC-GIS to highlight your program and projects.

Test your musical abilities by participating in two sessions with one on holiday tunes and one on contemporary tunes.

Have some fun creating a Jib Jab video. You'll be shown how to use this fun tool and you can choose the video to use!

Find common items around your home and win a prize! Two sessions featuring holiday and contemporary tunes.

Will your team be able escape the room? Test your knowledge of ANR to escape!

Talk for 2 minutes on any subject to entertain your colleagues who will judge the winners.

How much do you know about the holidays? Test your knowledge to win!

Learn how to become the Martha Stewart of your household by learning about the Art of Entertaining the DIY way! Two sessions to choose from: Cookie and tree decorating or Table Setting and Cheese/Charcuterie Boards

Test your drawing skills in a fun game of holiday Pictionary!

Photo Booth

Join the photo booth for fun photos of you and your team or family. We'll email you the shots. We'll start the photo booth at 1:30 before the event and have it active during the breakout sessions as well.
