

2022-23 Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassador Application

What is a Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassador?

Sponsored by the Contra Costa County 4-H Council, Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassadors serve as liaisons between the county 4-H office, 4-H members, 4-H volunteers, and the public. Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassadors visit 4-H clubs in their county; network with other organizations within the community; and represent their county at the annual 4-H State Leadership Conference. Participation in other 4-H county, regional, and statewide meetings and activities may vary. Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassadors act as visible role models for their fellow 4-H members, their county, their community, and state.

Why does 4-H have County Ambassadors, & where do they fit with the rest of 4-H?

The Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassadors rank not only recognizes a member's leadership abilities, but it is also a working honor that provides 4-H members the opportunity to serve the University of California 4-H Youth Development Program. The Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassador position is one of the highest youth service-learning opportunities and recognitions attainable in the Contra Costa County 4-H Youth Development Program. Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassadors are youth who have excelled in the areas of leadership and service learning; and have been selected to serve the 4-H Youth Development Program in roles that promote leadership through education and service.

To earn the County Ambassador Star Rank patch (hat) and lapel pin, the Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassadors are expected to:

- Act as Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassadors to various local and county programs and activities; including public presentations, workshops and leadership development opportunities.
- Coordinate, plan and implement the Contra Costa County 4-H Leadership Overnight Conference.
- Coordinate, plan and implement the Youth Leadership Conference in partnership with youth who attended the State Leadership Conference.
- Advance positive youth development through the adoption of a significant year-long service-learning project that makes county-wide impact over the course of your term.
- Represent Contra Costa County at the annual 4-H State Leadership Conference.
- Attend County Council meetings, lead the flag salute, 4-H Pledge & give an Ambassador report.
- Provide input to the 4-H Advisor to shape the future of the Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassador program, and assure it continues to meet the needs of the Contra Costa County 4-H Youth Development Program.

Term:

- Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassadors are expected to make a 13-month commitment to the program beginning June 1, 2022 (or installation date) & ending June 30, 2023.
- Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassadors are required to commit significant time to the work of being a County 4-H Ambassador. In general, 4-H County Ambassadors spend 10-40 hours per month, not including travel time, participating in workshops, outreach and completing the tasks of their role. 4-H County Ambassadors are expected to make this an important priority for the length of their term. They are expected to have timely response of email or text communication with their County Ambassador team and the 4-H office. It is critical that candidates reflect on their schedules and existing commitments before applying and accepting the position of County 4-H Ambassador.

SECTION A – CONTRA COSTA COUNTY 4-H AMBASSADOR AGREEMENT

I understand that if I am selected as a 4-H County Ambassador, I will have many obligations to fulfill in order to earn a star, including the following:

- Serve as the ambassador and role model of the 4-H Youth Development Program in Contra Costa County
- Represent Contra Costa County at the annual 4-H State Leadership Conference (SLC)
- Be a key leader in the planning and implementation of Contra Costa County event
- Attend regular County 4-H Ambassador team meetings (usually monthly)
- Complete a year-long ambassador team service-learning project, which will benefit Contra Costa County
- Attend County Council meetings (held the 1st Monday of each month beginning at 7:00PM) to lead the flag salute, 4-H Pledge and give a County Ambassador report, attendance required unless excused by your team
- Promote county and statewide 4-H activities and events using the County social media account.
- Plan in advance & set up the Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassador display at the Contra Costa County Fair
- Plan & attend the 2022 Fair Dance, this includes: arranging for location, music, invitations & refreshments.
- Set up and complete outreach at the County 4-H Ambassador table at Martial Cottle Park in October.
- Assist and/or present awards at county events as requested by event organizers (e.g. Foods Fiesta, Presentation Day, Fashion Revue, and Achievement Night)
- Plan the 2023 County 4-H Ambassador Application, Interviews, and 4-H Ambassador Induction

I realize that as a Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassador:

- I am representative of 4-H and a role model, I must exhibit exemplary behavior, be respectful to all, not use any foul or abusive language or gestures (not in person or on social media) and display a positive attitude.
- Must not be in possession or use of illegal drugs or alcohol, theft or vandalism at any 4-H event or function is unacceptable behavior and may result in my suspension from the 4-H Ambassador program.
- I may have to reduce my involvement in other activities - if they conflict with my 4-H Ambassador role.
- Extensive travel throughout the county/state will most likely be necessary.
- The role of County Ambassador is a working position of honor. I will represent my county in all that I do.

As a Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassador applicant, I realize that if I am selected, I will assume the above obligations to fulfill to the best of my abilities. I have personally prepared this application and believe it to be correct. Should any statements be purposely stated falsely or inaccurately, I understand that I can be denied further consideration for the position.

As a PARENT/GUARDIAN of a Contra Costa County 4-H Ambassador applicant, I have read the above and understand all the requirements and obligations that my child will have if selected as a County 4-H Ambassador. I realize I may be called upon to assist with transportation, host meetings at my home and encourage my child to meet deadlines. The Ambassador position is rewarding, but it is also time-consuming and sometimes stressful. I realize my child will need as much support as I can offer. Additionally, as the parent or guardian of the applicant, I have reviewed this application and believe it to be correct.
