Training on categorizing activities in tables for PR dossiers

Thu 10/29/2026 2:00 PM - 3:00 PM

As an academic there is a lot of work that you are engaged in and reporting this information under the correct category is very important. At the same time given the different activity tables, figuring out what activity category your work needs to be reported under can be confusing. This training provides an overview of the work that falls under Creative Activity and Research, University Service, Public Service, Professional Competency, Professional Development, Extension - Meetings Organized, Educational Presentations, and categorizing your Publications.
