

Marin County 4-H Youth Development Program Scholarship Application

Due September 30th

The Marin County 4-H Scholarship Program supports the 4-H mission statement: The University of California 4-H Youth Development Program engages youth in reaching their fullest potential while advancing the field of youth development.

To that end, the Marin County 4-H Council has set up a scholarship fund for eligible 4-H youth in the county who wish to further their education. The Council is offering up to $2000 in scholarship funds. The amount of each award will be based on the number of applications received and the individual merits of the applicant.

This scholarship is available to Marin County 4-H Youth who are currently enrolled in the 4-H Youth development program as a senior in high school or have been enrolled as a 4-H member now attending the first two years of college.
