

UC Davis Department of Viticulture and Enology
On the Road in Temecula
November 20, 2024, 5:00 pm - 9:15 pm
Wilson Creek Winery, Temecula, CA

- 5:00 PM Registration & Dinner
- 5:45 PM Welcome and Introduction, Karen L. Block, Director of Industry Relations, Department of Viticulture & Enology, UC Davis
- 5:55 PM Research update on management of grapevine trunk diseases, powdery mildew and Botrytis bunch rot in vineyards, Akif Eskalen, Professor of Cooperative Extension, Department of Plant Pathology, UC Davis
- 6:25 PM Vine nutrition with reference to grape berry firmness and color, Tian Tian, UCCE Viticulture Advisor, Kern County
- 6:55 PM Irrigation Management for Late-Season Dehydration, Megan Bartlett, Assistant Professor, Department of Viticulture & Enology, UC Davis
- 7:25 PM BREAK
- 7:35 PM Shifting to Regenerative Practices in Vineyards: Economic Outcomes and Practical Lessons, Axel Herrera, Post-doctoral researcher, Lazcano Lab, Department of Land, Air & Water Resources, UC Davis
- 8:05 PM Cleaning and sanitizing basics and how to make them more sustainable, David Block, Professor, Departments of Viticulture & Enology and Chemical Engineering, UC Davis
- 8:35 PM California Agave: An emerging drought-tolerant specialty crop, Ron Runnebaum, Associate Professor, Departments of Viticulture & Enology and Chemical Engineering, UC Davis
- 9:05 PM Q&A & Wrap-Up

Thank you to our Event Supporters!

Temecula Valley
Winegrowers
Association

WILSON CREEK

WINERY & VINEYARDS

Thank you to our Extension Partners!

Aggie Gold Partners

Aggie Blue Partners

LYNMAR ESTATE
Russian River Valley

