

Forest Landownership in California Webinar 2 Summary Report

Overview

Objective: To introduce the concept of stewardship to forest landowners in CA and increase understanding of who forest landowners are and the issues they face

Date: October 26th, 2011

Time: 10:00 AM to 12:00 PM PST

Target Audience: California forest landowners, conservation organizations and districts or other forest land managers, anyone interested

Attendance: 23

Highlights:

- 100% of participants said the webinar had knowledgeable presenters and was easy to use.
- 85% said they planned to apply what they had learned.
- One commented: "Thank you, I think this is worthwhile"

Thanks to our webinar speakers

Forest ecology and environment - Gary Nakamura, University of California Cooperative Extension Forestry Specialist, emeritus

Fire ecology - Mike De Lasaux, University of California Cooperative Extension, Plumas and Sierra Counties

Watershed ecology and streams - Dr. Richard Harris, NorCal Society of American Foresters

