

Proclamation

WHEREAS, 4-H is a community of young people across America who are learning leadership, citizenship and life skills; and,

WHEREAS, 4-H is one of the largest youth organizations in California; and,

WHEREAS, the Glenn County 4-H Youth Development Program had participation from 1,478 youth members and 160 adult volunteers during 2005; and,

WHEREAS, 4-H as part of the University of California Cooperative Extension is a program where youth learn together in all kinds of projects, events and activities; and,

WHEREAS, 4-H has been helping youth and adults learn, grow and work together for more than one hundred years;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, John Amaro, Chairman of the Glenn County Board of Supervisors, do hereby proclaim October 2-8, 2005 as National 4-H Week in Glenn County and urge the people of this community to take advantage of the opportunity to become more aware of this special program which gives youth the chance to learn together and on their own as part of Glenn County 4-H and to join us in recognizing the unique partnership between our county and our University System.

John Amaro, Chairman
Glenn County Board of Supervisors
