

Proclamation

WHEREAS, social problems concern our nation and threaten its future; and,

WHEREAS, connecting youth and adults to work together through volunteer service can bridge the differences that separate people and help solve social problems; and,

WHEREAS, we, the American people, have a tradition of philanthropy and volunteerism; and,

WHEREAS, 4-H is a community where young people learn leadership, citizenship and life skills; and,

WHEREAS, 6.5 million young people touch and enhance the lives of others during National 4-H Week and throughout the year by doing good, by giving where there is a need, rebuilding what had been torn down, teaching where there was a desire to learn, and inspiring those who had lost hope; and,

WHEREAS, 4-H youth, volunteers, and Cooperative Extension staff have joined to promote a week of national, collaborative volunteer community service;

WHEREAS, 4-H has been helping youth and adults learn, grow, and work together for more than one hundred years;

WHEREAS, volunteer community service is an investment in the future we all must share;

NOW, THEREFORE, WE, the Glenn County Board of Supervisors do hereby proclaim

OCTOBER 1-7, 2006
AS NATIONAL 4-H WEEK

In Glenn County, and urge my fellow citizens to observe this day by connecting with youth, friends, fellow employees and relatives, and with school, community, and civic groups to engage in projects benefiting their community.

Signed this: 3rd day of October, 2006.

Keith Hansen, Chairman
Glenn County Board of Supervisors
