New Glenn County 4-H County Ambassador and Jr. Ambassador Team Members Announced

The 2019-2020 County Ambassador Team Members are Carson Karle, Viviana Olmos, Noah Bostrom and Jacy Mull, and the 2019-2020 Jr. Ambassador is Bryce Mull.

Carson Karle is a member of the Lake 4-H Club and has been involved with 4-H for ten years. He enjoys participating in the Outdoor Adventure and Robotics projects. He is also involved in the dairy project where he is a Teen Leader, as well. Carson is currently a County Ambassador, his club's president and has committed himself to several community service activities through 4-H. Carson is eager to be an Ambassador member for a third year and wants to expand his leadership and teamwork skills.

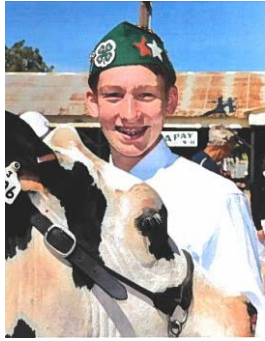

Viviana Olmos is a member of the Lake 4-H Club and has been enrolled in 4-H for nine years. She is currently a County Ambassador and is also involved in many projects including Outdoor Adventure and Beginning 4-H, where she is the Teen Leader. She has held many different club officer positions and is currently the Council Officer Secretary. Viviana is excited to be part of the Ambassador Team for her third year and wants to "dig deeper in 4-H."

Noah Bostrom is a member of the Stoney Creek 4-H Club and has been enrolled in 4-H for three years. He is involved in many projects including Archery, Sports Shooting, Dairy, Dairy Goats, and Leather Craft. Three of which, he is the Teen Leader. Noah is currently his club's president and is looking forward to being a County Ambassador while refining his leadership skills.

Jacy Mull is a member of the Capay 4-H Club and has been enrolled in 4-H for seven years. She is also involved in many projects, such as Goats, Hi 4-H, Ornamental Horticulture, Swine Veterinary Science, and Sheep. She is Teen Leader for the Swine and Vet Science projects. She has been her club's president for many years and is ready to start her year as a County Ambassador.

Bryce Mull is a member of the Capay 4-H Club and has been enrolled in 4-H for five years. He is involved in Hi 4-H, Swine, and Veterinary Science projects. He has held the club officer position of Secretary and is also eager to join the Jr. Ambassador Team and learn many new leadership and communication skills.
