

2014 Healthy San Joaquin Champions

Let's Move! Weston Ranch

Individual: A Community member who has been at the forefront of working with local leaders to create environmental and policy changes focused on improving access to healthy foods and improving access to physical activity resources.

Geraldo Garcia – Roosevelt Elementary School

Youth Leader: An individual or group under the age of 18 who has demonstrated outstanding skills in organizing and promoting activities that support access to healthy foods and access to safe places to play.

Cleveland Elementary - After School Program

School: A person or school (this includes preschools, elementary, middle or high schools, after school programs) that has implemented innovative strategies in their food and physical activity environment to improve the health of students.

Randy Pinnelli, PA – Care Link Program Coordinator with Community Medical Centers

Health Care Champion: A physician or Health Care Provider who has made a remarkable contribution towards obesity prevention and health promotion.

Victor Community Support Services Family Vision Wraparound, Luz Lua/Torres Gym

Community Based Organization: An organization or group that has connected, facilitated, and demonstrated outstanding skills in helping to organize and promote active living and/or healthy eating.

Rebecca Abellana-Delvo – Taylor Elementary School, Seeds of Change School Garden

Built Environment: A person organization that has incorporated healthy eating and active living into community design to improve the places where people live.

Health Plan of San Joaquin

Work site Wellness/Business: An employer or business that has developed and implemented a culture and environment at their workplace that supports healthy eating and physical activity among its workers.

Maria Elena Salcedo – Creative Kids Preschool

Children's Champion (0-5): A parent, individual or organization that has been a leader in improving access to healthy foods and/or physical activity resources for children 0-5.

Manteca Seventh-Day Adventist Church

Faith-based: A faith-based group or individual that has connected, facilitated and demonstrated outstanding skills in helping to organize and promote active living and healthy eating.

Sponsored by:

