Dear Agriculture Friends -
We cordially invite you in joining the fifth annual Modoc Ag Expo on Friday, March 13, 2020. Held from 9:30 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. at the Modoc District Fairgrounds in Cedarville, CA. This FREE public event hosted by University of California Cooperative Extension Modoc office, National Resource Conservation Service, Vya Conservation District and the Modoc Heritage Foundation. The Modoc Ag Expo includes a morning reception, Trade Show and luncheon.

The Expo proudly offers an open forum for agricultural producers and enthusiasts to learn about current legislation, technologies and agricultural related services. Several outstanding industry speakers have been scheduled along with an exciting Trade Show hosted by Modoc Heritage Foundation.

In an effort to aid the Modoc Heritage Foundation we ask that you consider becoming a sponsor or vendor of this annual event. Your contribution and support is greatly valued and appreciated. All money raised from this event goes towards hosting the 100th annual Modoc District Fair, August 27 through 30 in Cedarville. The Modoc Heritage Foundation is a 501(c)(3) organization and all contributions are tax exempt!

Admission to the Expo, trade show and luncheon is free. Please RSVP for lunch by March 9th by contacting Cheryl Kunert by emailing cmkunert@ucanr.edu or phone 530-233-6400. Vendor spots at the trade show are available for a $100 donation.
