2022 IREC Field Day Agenda
Thursday, July 28th
UC Intermountain REC
2816 Havlina Rd, Tulelake CA 96134

8:15 am
Registration Opens

8:40 am
Introductions and Opening Remarks
Rob Wilson, IREC Center Director/Farm Advisor, Tulelake

9:00 am
Stop 1
Fallow Field Management- Weeds, Nutrients, Benefits/Pitfalls
Rob Wilson, Darrin Culp, and Thomas Getts, UCCE

9:20 am
Stop 2
UC Davis Triticale Development- Does 12 tons of forage per acre sound good?
Dr. Josh Hegarty, UC Davis Wheat Breeding

9:40 am
Stop 3
Onion Research Projects- Maggots & Drip vs Sprinkler Irrigation
Rob Wilson, IREC Center Director, Tulelake

9:50 am
Stop 4
Potato Research Projects- Black Dot, PoX-C, and Powdery scab
Rob Wilson, IREC Center Director & Brian Charlton, OSU KBREC

10:05 am  Break

10:15 am
Stop 5
Alfalfa Variety Development and Managing Alfalfa during Drought
Dr. Dan Putnam, Forage Specialist, UC Davis

10:35 am
Stop 6
Updates on Perennial Grass Research
Dr. Charlie Brummer, Director and Professor for Plant Breeding, UC Davis

11:00 am  Indoor
Grasshopper Control and Impacts in the Intermountain Region
Tom Getts, Weed Ecology and Cropping Systems Advisor, Susanville, CA

11:15 am  Indoor
Insect Management in Alfalfa
Dr. Ian Grettenberger, UC Davis Entomology Specialist

11:35 am  Indoor
Drought and Water Curtailment throughout Siskiyou County
Giuliano Galdi and Rob Wilson, Siskiyou UCCE

12:00 pm  Catered Lunch