

REQUEST TO TAKE 4-H PROJECT FROM A LEADER IN ANOTHER CLUB

4-H members may be led by 4-H project leaders from another club if all of the following circumstances exist.

1. There is no leader for that project in the member's home club. (This requirement may be waived by the UC Cooperative Extension staff in extreme circumstances.)
2. The project leader in the host club agrees to provide leadership. This agreement must be renewed each year.
3. The Community Club Leaders of both clubs are aware of the agreement and inform the UC Cooperative Extension Office of the arrangement.
4. The 4-H member agrees to abide by the project requirements set by the project leader.
