

Global Intelligence to help you prepare for your travel adventures.

ARE YOU PREPARED?

As a member of the UC community, we can help you research and prepare for programs and travel abroad!

If you are planning a study program or travel abroad, iJET can help. We can provide you detailed destination intelligence and travel advice to ensure you are fully informed of all safety, health, and security concerns currently affecting travel in the area.

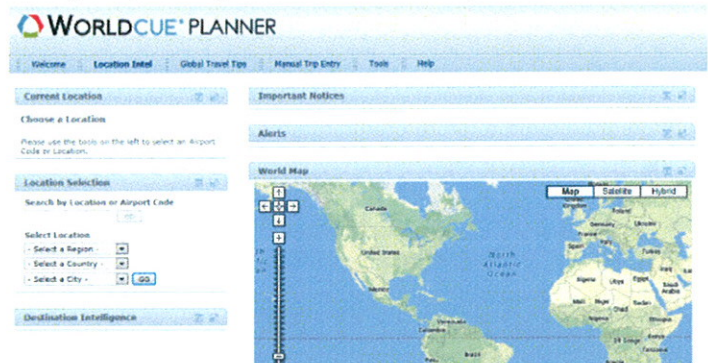

As an exclusive benefit of the UC community, you have access to Worldcue® PLANNER powered by iJET, a global intelligence online resource that provides comprehensive destination and travel safety and security information for over 180 countries and more than 200 cities around the world.

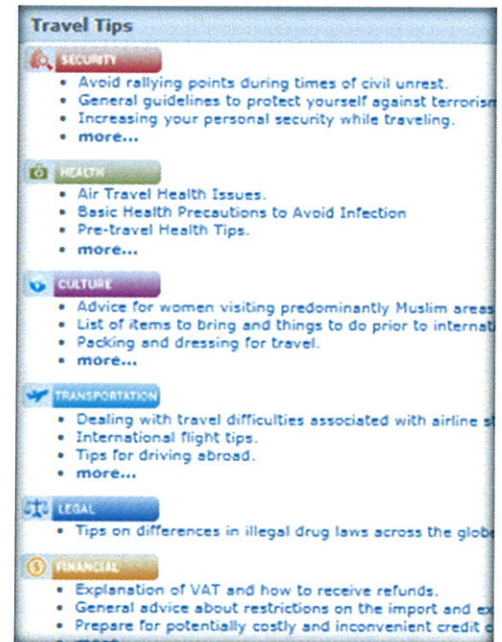

With Worldcue® PLANNER, you gain insights on your destination's entry requirements; climate, language and currency; cultural and political environment; and health and security alerts. Worldcue® PLANNER also provides travel tips on more than 150 topics, including protecting yourself from petty theft or kidnapping and travel health issues, as well as real-time travel alerts to keep you informed of potential disruptions to your travel.

Having knowledge about your program's destination helps participants be better prepared to have a safe and enjoyable experience. Whether you are considering creating a study program abroad or you are already preparing for one, add Worldcue® PLANNER to your planning checklist as one of your 'must do's'!
