UC ANR Clearance to Work Survey

UC ANR takes your private information seriously. Very few individuals will have access to your survey responses and they are the individuals managing this daily survey. Any reports shared from this survey will only include your name and final clearance for in-person work or advised to stay home status. All other responses will not be saved. Your survey responses and personal information will not be shared. Your director/supervisor will receive a daily report of your status for in-person work.
