and Mesa Harmony Garden present:

FREE, IN-PERSON GARDEN WORKSHOP

Master Gardener Janet Rogers will share a research-based presentation, Bare-Root Fruit Trees to kick off the 2025 in-person Garden Workshops at Mesa Harmony Garden.

January is a great time of year to plant bare-root fruit trees. Janet will talk about the benefits of planting bare-root fruit trees, how to select varieties based on chill hours, soil, water requirements, and more.

This presentation will help home gardeners enjoy the advantages of the diverse kinds of bare-root fruit trees available at this time of year.
