Wilmington, Delaware is the largest and most populous city in Delaware. It is built on the site of Fort Christina and sits on the Christina and Delaware Rivers. It is the first Swedish settlement in North America dating back to 1698. The city is a blend of old and new which celebrates diversity of cultures and lifestyles. It has 552 acres of parks.

Friday October 9, 2020
Convention Registration 12:00-6:00 PM
Welcome Ceremony & Dinner 6:30-8:30 PM
Contest Education Workshops 8:30-12:00 AM

Saturday October 10, 2020
Individual & Team Judging - All day
Evening meal 6:00-7:30 PM

Sunday October 11, 2020
Educational workshops AM
Awards Ceremony
Tour Longwood Gardens

Martha Humber 16 California
Grand National winner Ages 15-18
The strawberry is the state fruit of Delaware and the rooster is the rarest of all state birds, Delaware’s Blue Hen Chicken. They were used for cock fighting during the Revolutionary War, that is why it doesn’t have much of a comb.

NJHA Convention
October 9-11, 2020
DoubleTree Hilton Hotel
Wilmington, Delaware
njha.org

Prepared by Ms. Ferol Empen & James V Parochetti
Printing: Courtesy of American Society Horticultural Science