Education scholarships are awarded annually to members who exhibit 4-H leadership and are highly involved in 4-H, school, and other activities.

REQUIREMENTS:

The Lynne Burns Memorial 4-H Scholarship Applicant must meet the following requirements:

1. Be a high school senior, or current General Education Diploma (GED) recipient, who has applied to and has intentions of attending an institution of higher education. Institutions of higher education include accredited vocational schools, colleges or universities.
2. Have completed four years of 4-H Club work during high school, at least one of which was in a Solano County 4-H Club.
3. Two letters of recommendation, one from a 4-H leader and one from an individual outside the program (i.e. teacher, counselor, employer, etc.). Each letter of recommendation must be in a sealed envelope, signed by the writer across the seal and returned to the applicant for submission along with their application.
4. The sealed letters of recommendation must be submitted at the same time as the Lynne Burns Memorial 4-H Scholarship application.
5. Have an accumulative GPA of at least 3.0. Submit current, official transcript of grades on or before the deadline. Members who are home schooled must provide formal documentation in traditional grade format or an official letter from their oversight agency.

6. Submit a current 4-H Resume.
7. Submit an essay, of no more than two pages double spaced, on one of the two topics below.
 - I. "How 4-H has helped me to become a better leader".
 - II. "How will my 4-H experience help me in my future".
8. Be a Solano County 4-H member, in good standing, at the time of application.
9. Have served as a club officer.
10. Have served as a Jr. or Teen Leader.
11. Complete the Lynne Burns Memorial 4-H Scholarship Application as instructed.
12. Enroll in an accredited course of study, at an institution of higher education, within one year of receipt of the scholarship.
13. Come before the scholarship selection committee for an oral interview. Interview will be scheduled for late March or early April. Applicants will be notified of interview date and location.
