A Message from the Junior Show Board Officer Team

Dear Exhibitors:

We are looking forward to another exciting year. Please take some time and check out the Program Handbook carefully as things have been switched around. The Carcass Contest is not being offered this year; therefore we are reducing entry fees for the market Beef, Goats, Sheep and Swine. We have split the Horse Show into two days so be sure to check the schedule for when your classes are offered.

Some of the changes for 2015:

- ❖ Livestock General Rules – Rules 20, 30 & 31
- ❖ Special Classes & Awards – Pen of 3 Large Market Animal Competition (See species for Class #.)
- ❖ Beef Division – Rule 15
- ❖ Goat Division – Rules 7 & 8
- ❖ Horse Division – Rules 2, 15 & 20
- ❖ Sheep Division – Rules 7 & 8
- ❖ Swine Division – Rules 6 & 10

The Junior Show Board will also host a dance for our exhibitors on Thursday night in the Sale Arena.

We look forward to seeing you there!!!

The Junior Show Board Officer Team

SHOW RULES

GENERAL

1. All participants must be a member of a Modoc County 4-H Club, or a member of the Alturas, Big Valley or Surprise Valley FFA Chapters.
2. 4-H and FFA members may participate in no more than one Junior Livestock Sale following graduation from high school.
3. There is not a special entry form for Primary 4-H or Pee Wee Showmanship. Please use the standard Junior Livestock Show Entry Form. Be sure to designate the appropriate Class Number and Section.
4. Exhibits are entered at the owner's risk.
5. In an effort to make this a family friendly event, no alcohol will be allowed on the show grounds.
6. In order to reduce fire hazard, smoking will be restricted to the east parking lot away from the barns and house trailers.
7. All 4-H and FFA members are prohibited from possessing or using alcoholic beverages or drugs, using obscene language, rough-housing, destroying property, or insubordination when on show grounds, including show rings, barns, and house trailers. Infractions as determined by a responsible adult or Junior Show Board member may result in any or all of the following penalties: disqualification of member and animal from show and sale, assessing member the cost of damages, and/or releasing member to the appropriate law enforcement agency.
8. Entries for all classes must be submitted to the Junior Livestock Show/4-H Office by the responsible 4-H Leader or FFA Advisor by 5:00 pm on May 7, 2015. EXHIBITORS are responsible for all errors on entry forms. Please double check to ensure that all Class numbers, Section numbers, description, JLS tag number or other identification and information as well as required signatures are provided. No changes or refunds will be issued for incorrect entry.
9. Every 4-H Club and FFA Chapter must include a $50 stall deposit with their entries (a deposit must be included even if the club/chapter plans on showing only small animals) or exhibitors will not be entered. The deposit will be returned if club/chapter members:
 - a. Remove all breeding animals from Show Grounds and clean their stalls by 6 pm, Friday, June 12th.
 - b. Leave water for their market animals until Noon on Saturday, June 12th.
 - c. Clean all stalls and adjacent areas by 2:00 pm on Saturday, June 13th. Note: If you clean pens following the sale on Friday night and then leave the animals overnight for shipping, exhibitors will be expected to re-clean the stalls and remove any feed left in the mangers by 2 pm Saturday, June 13th or the club/chapter's deposit will be withheld in entirety.
 - d. Club/Chapter flower box is in its assigned location; and
 - e. The club/chapter trash can is in its assigned location and has been emptied as needed during the week of show. If trash cans are not emptied as needed, the Junior Show Board will deduct $10.00 per day from the club or chapter deposit.
 - f. The Junior Show Board will withhold the deposit in entirety if adults are identified cleaning stalls.
10. Junior classes are open to exhibitors who are in the 4th & 5th grades (Ages 9-10) during the current school year. Intermediate classes are open to exhibitors who are in the 6-8th grades (Ages 11-13) during the current school year. Senior classes are open to exhibitors in the 9-12th grades (Ages 14-19) during the current school year.

11. Exhibitors who receive an award during the Junior Livestock Show will receive an envelope with a list of the individuals or businesses that sponsored their award when they receive their ribbon. To receive their award at the awards ceremony, exhibitors are required to bring a stamped and addressed thank you note for each award sponsor to the announcer's table by Noon Friday, June 12. In order to maintain their position in the sale order, Round Robin winners are required to bring stamped and addressed thank you notes to the announcer's table by 5:00 pm, Friday, June 12. Thank you notes (with stamped envelopes) will be available for purchase at the concession stand if needed.
12. Awarding of all champion ribbons and prizes will be the decision of the judges.
13. The Junior Show Board will decide all disputes and decisions not covered by the rules.
14. A 7% commission will be charged against all sale animals to support the show and sale.
15. Sale participants will receive a list of individuals/businesses that purchased their animal the week after the Junior Livestock Show. Participants will receive their sale check when they bring or mail a stamped/addressed thank you note to the Junior Show/4-H Office for each of their buyers and when all monies are received from their buyer(s).
16. In the interest of safety and to facilitate getting market animals out of the pens and into the ring for the livestock sale, only Junior Show Board members, advisors, exhibitors and their project leaders (no parents, guardians or others) will be allowed in all barns between 6:00 pm and the end of the sale (about 9 pm) on Friday, June 12, 2015.
17. In the interest of safety during shipping, only Junior Show Board members will be allowed in all barns between 6:00 am to 10:00 am on Saturday, June 13, 2015. Stall cleaning will not be allowed during this time.

UNIFORM

1. 4-H members will wear the following uniform during all classes, the awards ceremony, and the auction: dark blue jeans, white collared long sleeved shirt that is long enough to tuck in, 4-H tie or scarf, and 4-H hat.
2. FFA members will wear the following uniforms during all classes, the awards ceremony, and the auction: black pants, white shirt, FFA tie or scarf, and FFA jacket.
3. Horse show competitors may wear breeches in English classes in place of blue jeans. 4-H Horse Proficiency patches may be worn on member's white shirt.
4. Rabbit competitors may wear an apron over their uniform.

LIVESTOCK GENERAL

1. Livestock not properly trained, fed and groomed or those who are unhealthy or pose a safety hazard are subject to being sifted from competition and removed from the show grounds.
2. Barn and stall space will only be provided for the market or breeding beef, goats, sheep, and swine entered in the show.
3. Each exhibitor must furnish his/her own equipment and feed. Initial bedding will be provided.
4. Roping will only be allowed in the West (Roping) Arena, not around the show rings and barns.

5. Each exhibitor may have no more than two entries in each market class.
6. Exhibitors who enter more than one market or breeding animal in a class must find a current 4-H or FFA member to show their additional animal in advance of show day. These members must wear the appropriate uniform and be available to hold and show the animal in the champion class if necessary. Failure to secure a suitable showman/woman prior to the class will result in the animal being disqualified.
7. No animal may be entered in both market and breeding classes.
8. Members are required to do their own work with their animals and stalls. They may receive limited assistance from current members who are 2014 graduates or younger. Adults may not be in the stalls and may assist with verbal advice only. An infraction of this rule will cause members and animals to be disqualified. Junior Show Board members must be notified of an infraction in writing.
9. Adults may assist with the unloading and set up of tack and feed until 2:00 pm on Wednesday and after the Award Ceremony on Friday.
10. Each exhibitor shall show his/her animal in accordance with the schedule and may be disqualified for failure to do so.
11. An exhibitor may have only one Grand or Reserve Champion market animal in consideration for the show. If an exhibitor has two animals in consideration for Grand and Reserve Champion, and the judge selects one of the exhibitor's entries for Grand Champion, the exhibitor must withdraw the second animal. Grand and Reserve Champion animals must grade Group 1.
12. In Junior-Intermediate-Senior showmanship classes, the exhibitor's animal must be owned, fitted and shown by member.
13. The Junior Show Board reserves the right to divide or combine classes beyond the sections listed if deemed necessary. When there are less than 3 entries in each section of a class, the sections will be combined into a single class/section.
14. All animals are subject to use in the judging contest.
15. No exhibitor may sell at this sale who has sold at another junior livestock sale in the current calendar year with the exception of statewide shows.
16. To be eligible to show and sell market beef, goats, lambs and hogs, prospective exhibitors (except JLS Board members and their siblings) must have their animals tagged and recorded by a Junior Show Board Member at one of the scheduled JLS Tagging Days.
17. All market beef, goats, sheep and swine must be in the pens by 2:00 pm on Wednesday, June 10, 2015.
18. Market animals will be weighed only once.
19. Market beef, goats, sheep, and swine will be weighed beginning at 2:30 pm. Sheep will be weighed first, followed by goats, beef, and swine. Market swine will be weighed starting at approximately 4:00 pm. No washing or decorating during hog weigh-in.
20. Only exhibitors and Junior Show Board members are allowed in the barns (All Barns) during weigh-in. No parents, guests, public, FFA Advisor's, or 4-H Project Leaders will be allowed.

21. To be eligible for sale, market beef, goats, sheep and swine must grade Market Ready. Meat birds and rabbits must grade Group 2 or above.
22. Photos must be taken immediately following market classes. If a member fails to have their photo taken for their buyer's card, their check will be held until a photo is provided to the Modoc 4-H Office.
23. Sale order will be determined by the judge's placing all sale animals in rank of grade.
24. For exhibitors with more than one market entry, the highest placing animal will be entered in the sale order, unless the Modoc 4-H Office is notified in writing by the exhibitor by 5:00 pm on Thursday, June 11, 2015.
25. Non-sale animals may be removed after the last market class on Thursday.
26. Exhibitors who wish to ship non-sale animals to slaughterhouses on Saturday must complete the necessary paperwork at the Farm Advisor's Office by 5:00 pm on Thursday, June 11, 2015. If paperwork is not completed by that deadline, the animal will not be shipped and will not be the responsibility of the Junior Show Board.
27. To be eligible to sell, every 4-H and FFA member must participate in a showmanship class.
28. Each exhibitor may sell only one animal at the Modoc County Junior Livestock Sale per year.
29. No drugged animals may go through the sale. USDA meat inspectors sample show animals for residues of antibiotics, sedatives and tranquilizers. Sellers of condemned carcasses must return the payment or replace the carcass and are liable for triple civil damages and fines.
30. First Place Showmen, in consideration for Round Robin Showmanship, have thirty (30) minutes to turn in the signed participation contract to the Announcer's table to ensure a spot for the Round Robin competition. In the event that the first place showman does not wish to compete or misses the deadline the second place showman will be given a chance to compete.
31. Use of animals for the Round Robin Showmanship will be at the discretion of the Junior Show Board.

2015 SALE ORDER

Animals will be sold in the following order for 2015: Rabbits, Poultry, Beef, Sheep, Goats and Swine.

SPECIAL CLASSES AND AWARDS

MODOC BRED & RAISED AWARDS

This award is for the highest placing market beef, goat, sheep and swine entry that is Modoc Bred & Raised. Please note the following:

1. Section 1 is for market animals born and raised on an operation headquartered in Modoc County (which may also encompass bordering property in Lake County, OR; Lassen County, CA; and Washoe County, NV). Following judging of each weight class/market animal division, all the Modoc Bred & Raised market animals will be brought back into the ring and re-judged to better highlight/focus attention on our local livestock industry.
2. Section 2 is for market animals born and raised by a livestock operation outside of Modoc County.

HERDSMANSHIP

This contest is designed to encourage members to arrange and keep their stalls and livestock attractive and clean. Pens and livestock are subject to examination by the judges at any time during the show. All work is to be done by the members.

ROUND ROBIN SHOWMANSHIP

Only first place showman and the animal shown in his/her showmanship class may compete in Round Robin Showmanship. If an individual has won first place in more than one showmanship class, he/she will select the class he/she wishes to represent in the Round Robin. In the other class in which he/she won, the second place showman and his/her animal will represent the class in Round Robin.

In the Junior, Intermediate, and Senior Round Robin Showmanship classes, each participant will show horse, chicken, turkey, rabbit, beef, goat, sheep and swine. The winner is to be determined by his/her ability to show all species. Judging in all Round Robin Showmanship divisions will begin at Noon.

In the event of a tie in the Junior, Intermediate, or Senior divisions, the member with the highest placing in the rabbit class will be the winner.

ALUMNI ROUND ROBIN SHOWMANSHIP

Alumni (Adult) Round Robin is open to anyone 18 years and older who is not participating in the Senior Division. The Alumni Round Robin will be held in conjunction with the Youth Round Robin Showmanship competition. Alumni will be asked to show horse, beef, goat, sheep and swine (i.e., alumni will not show rabbits or poultry).

Alumni may enter the Alumni Round Robin between Monday at 8 am and Friday at 10 am at the announcer's booth. No entries will be accepted after 10 am on Friday. An entry fee of $5 per alumni must be paid at the time of entry. In the event of a tie in the Alumni Round Robin, the participant with the highest placing in the goat class will be the winner.

Pen of 3 Large Market Animals Competition

1. Pens of three will consist of three market animals of a single species entered from any FFA Chapter or 4-H Club. Class divisions are listed per species. Animals may only be entered in one (1) pen of three class.
2. Animals chosen for the pen of three must be taken from those shown by members of that particular FFA Chapter or 4-H Club.
3. Official Judges will be those listed per species in the Judges section. Groups will be judged after the Goat Showmanship class on Friday, June 12. Species will show in the following order: Pen of 3 Beef, Pen of 3 Sheep, Pen of 3 Swine and Pen of 3 Goats.
4. Winners will receive 1st place rosettes.

3. ASTM approved helmets with chin straps secured are required for anyone on a horse in or out of the arena during the entire show.
4. All riders must bring their helmet to registration to be checked. If the helmet is not ASTM certified, the rider will not be allowed to show.
5. Riders will be disqualified for cruel or inhumane treatment of their horse as determined by the Junior Show Board.
6. Horse patterns will be posted. No demonstrations will be allowed.
7. In showmanship classes, use of a chain chin piece on lead rope is allowed at the judge's discretion.
8. Class #20, Section #1 (Western Equitation Walk-Trot) is open to first and second year horse project members only. Members who enter this class are also allowed to enter showmanship and halter classes. They cannot enter regular English, bareback, western, cow horse, or gymkhana classes.
9. In western classes a hackamore, curb, snaffle, half-breed, or spade bit is permissible. However, horses must be shown in what is appropriate for their age.

10. Chain chin straps are permissible but must be at least one-half inch in width, and must lie flat against the jaw of the horse. No wire chin straps regardless of how padded or covered. No chin straps narrower than one-half inch will be allowed.
11. Martingales, nosebands, and tie-downs are prohibited in performance and cow horse classes.
12. In the Working Cow Horse class, exhibitors will call for their cow and box it until whistled off by the judge. No dry work.
13. In the Ranch Horse class, exhibitors will call for their cow, box it at the end of the arena, turn it both ways on the fence, and pen it. After releasing the cow from the pen, the rider will rope it around the neck, dally, stop cow, and face up. Cow must be dallied and faced up within 2 ½ minute time limit. There is no limit on the amount of loops used.
14. Tie-downs are allowed in gymkhana classes only.
15. Exhibitors will have two minutes after the third call to get to the gate before the gate closes.
16. Gymkhana riders have one minute to enter the arena and start their pattern after their name has been announced. Failure to do so will result in disqualification.
17. All-Around High Point Horse Show Exhibitor awards will be given to the Junior, Intermediate and Senior exhibitors with the highest average number of points earned in the qualifying classes. Points in each qualifying class will be awarded as follows: First Place – 5 Points, 2nd Place – 4 Points, 3rd Place – 3 Points, 4th Place – 2 Points, Fifth Place – 1 Point.
18. In the event of a tie, the high point winner will be determined based on the exhibitor with the most first place wins.
19. Exhibitors in horse showmanship must show the horse in at least one other class at the Junior Livestock Show.
20. Exhibitor's using horse stalls must indicate the need of a stall by filling out a Horse Stall Application and submitting it with your entry form. Stalls will be given on a first come first served basis. Stalls must be cleaned upon removal of horse from the show. Horses are to be removed from the show grounds by 4:00 pm on Friday of the show.

3. Market lambs will be graded and ribbons awarded as indicated.

MARKET READY USDA Prime or Choice quality grade lambs with 12th rib back fat range of .16 to .35 inch and average or better conformation and cut ability are eligible to sell. Market ready animals will be broken down into Group 1 (Blue Ribbon) and Group 2 (Red Ribbon) by the judge based on quality of the animals for sale purposes only.

NOT MKT. READY USDA Good or lower quality grade lambs with 12th rib back fat range of <.16 or >.35 inch; under finished lambs grading USDA Good or lower; or lambs with below-average conformation or cut ability are not eligible to sell (White Ribbon.)

4. Lambs may not carry more than one inch of stretched fleece at any point on their bodies at weigh in. It is recommended that lambs be sheared after May 1st.
5. Callipyge lambs (heavy muscled) cannot be part of the sale and will be sifted.
6. Feeder lamb class—open to all market lambs weighing 80 to 109 pounds. Animals not originally intended for sale at the Junior Livestock Show need not be tagged. Animals originally intended for sale at the Junior Livestock Show that did not make weight can enter the feeder class Wednesday evening after weigh in is complete. Entry fee will be required at that time.
7. All sheep require individual identification. The official identification may be official USDA individual identification ear tags, Scrapies Flock Certification Program ear tags, or registration tattoos if accompanied by registration papers. Scrapies tag or number, along with registration certificate indicating Scrapie number, must accompany market animal at the time of JLS tagging or animal will not be tagged. Breeding sheep will be checked Thursday prior to the first breeding sheep class.
8. Animals will be allowed to be decorated for the sale but must be cleaned by the exhibitor before the animal is shipped or exhibitor will be charged a fine of 15% of their sale amount.
9. Exhibitors of all breeding animals must own their animal(s) at least 60 days prior to the show or be the breeder of the animal.
10. Breeding animals may arrive and leave the day they are to be shown.
