

Candy Bar Officer Installation

PRESIDENT- Allyson Hughes: You are the president this year. It is your responsibility to preside over all executive and community meetings. The club will be relying on you to get these meetings organized and to make them successful. You will be working with the other officers, junior leaders, and community leaders to ensure that KCBR 4-H has a successful year. We present you with a MOUNDS bar because you have "mounds" of work ahead of you

VICE-PRESIDENTS- Brooke Taylor and Kaylah Schriver: As Co-Vice-Presidents you will be in charge of roll call by keeping a record of member's attendance at each meeting. You will offer support and assistance to the president. We present you with a CRUNCH bar because in a crunch you may be called on to preside at a meeting.

RECORDING SECRETARY- Charlie Serrato: Acting as the club's secretary is a big responsibility, for it is you that will keep all of the official minutes of our meetings. If questions arise regarding anything from past meetings, it is up to you to have record of the information. We present you with a U-NO bar because you will always know about any goings on in the club.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY- Amy Press: Communication is a very important part of all club business. As corresponding secretary, you will be required to take charge of all club correspondence, including thank you notes to answer all letters with prompt replies, and to notify the club of any letters you receive concerning club matters. We present you with a BUTTERFINGER to remind you not to let the correspondence slip by.

TREASURER- Heidi Morisoli: You are in charge of all the monies of KCBR 4-H Club. You will be required to keep an up-to-date treasurer's book, accounting for all money collected and any expenditures. You must see that any bills presented will be promptly paid, and you should have and up-to-date report on the club's financial status for each meeting. We present you with a 100 GRAND bar for although your treasury may never grow to this sum, you must take good care of our money.

REPORTER- Daniel Paxton: You, as reporter, will be responsible for keeping the public informed of KCBR 4-H club events. Every month, we will be expecting a brief article printed in the Rustler. We present you with WHOPPERS because you'll always be on the lookout for a "whopper" of a story to report.

HISTORIAN- Lauren Domingos: A club as active as KCBR 4-H needs someone to make a good, complete memento of their activities. It is your job to create a memory book to record the history of this club for the year 2010-2011. Several years from now when all the present members are older, the club historian's book will be greatly appreciated. We present you with and ALMOND JOY bar because you will bring joy to those when they look at your scrapbook and remember those wonderful 4-H moments.

OPENING AND CLOSING OFFICER- Danielle Ledo: It is your responsibility to lead our club with the pledges. You will open the meeting with the "Pledge of Allegiance" and close the meeting with the "4-H Pledge" We present you with a NOW AND LATER because you will always have a job to do now (at the beginning of meetings) and later (at the end of the meetings).

MONITOR- Breana Aguilar: As monitor for our club it will be your responsibility to arrive early to each meeting, see to it that the room is set up appropriately-this includes tables, benches, and podium in place. Club flags and banners should be properly displayed, and the sound system should be turned on. Also at the conclusion of the meeting, you need to see to it that everything is put back where it belongs. We present you with ABBA-ZABBA bar because you're going to wish you had magical powers to abba-zabba-cadabra all the trash away.

SUNSHINE OFFICER- Elizabeth Bryant: As Sunshine Officer it is your job to help members celebrate their birthdays at each monthly meeting by leading the "Happy Birthday" song. We present you with a PAY DAY bar because you will be paying members with a special treat on their special day.

SERGANT OF ARMS- Amy Hughes and Madison Owens: As Sergeant of Arms, it will be your job to pass out and collect things. You will be in charge of the prize giveaway. Your role is also to keep order within the club during meetings. Nothing can be accomplished if a room is in chaos, so you will be asked to remind members to be polite listeners during meetings. We present you with SNICKERS bars as a reminder to keep snickering people under control.
