

4-H PRESENTATION VERIFICATION

As part of the 4-H program, members must share their project skills with groups and organizations outside of the 4-H program.

As an outside observer, you have an opportunity to help reassure 4-H members about the things they are doing well, and to help them improve their presentations.

The most important areas of a presentation are the manner and content of the presentation and the effect on the audience.

The presentation given by the member must not be a presentation on a school topic or done for a school assignment.

Would you please take a few minutes to comment on the 4-H members presentation.

Thank you for your help.

Sincerely,

Julie Frazell
