All Star Updates-Clayton Andrade and Cody Andrade.

Cody Andrade got a grant to help plant trees at the fair grounds down in the camping area. Clayton is a 4-H representative for the 4-H Farm, Home & Family Foundation; they haven't had any meetings yet.

New Business:

We need a nomination committee to select two volunteers for secretary and president. Carol Campbell and Suzie Pinch are on the nomination committee.

Office Report:

Talked about Kiwanis Pancake Breakfast, ticket sales and shifts. Remember, Presale tickets are Very important this year!!! We get 100% of presale and 70% at the door. So Please Sell those Presale Tickets!

Information Booth at the Lake County Fair: We will have a 4-H booth. 4-H's 80th year in Lake County. We need 4-H stories and pictures. Bring them into the 4-H office.

Kiss A Pig –June 17, 2006. There will be a poster contest. We need ideas for what will make good prizes for the kids.

4-H Summer Camp: will be July 10-14th. There are Danny Wilds Scholarships available for 4-H members who need financial help to go to camp. Contact the 4-H office. Camp is $100 and $20 for bus fee to Woodchuck – Nevada County.

Pear Festival Float: The Master Gardeners would like a group of 4-H'ers to ride and walk by a float for the parade. Contact the 4-H office.

Educational Display changes: Due to the slow responses with the thank you letters, your thank you letter will be turned into the 4-H office to be reviewed before receiving your award.

Youth-In-Action Team: The 4-H youth team will go and learn about something and bring the idea back to the county and teach other 4-H members.

Konocti Kids Day: is on May 20, 2006 at Austin Park in Clearlake. All activities are free except food. Music, car-seat safety checks, bike helmet fittings, giveaways, and lots of fun!

WHY Conference 2006: will be October 13-15th, 2006.

Fair Form Signature: 4-H staff is responsible this year for signing off your fair forms. Rosters, and club attendance needs to be to 4-H office by June 30, 2006.

Remember: 4-H week is the first week in October.

4-H Spring Dance: Jill Robbins and Tracy Wanzer talked about the dance.

Car Show: July 15, 2006: There will be an outreach booth and demonstrations going on. Remember to wear your 4-H shirts.

Junior Livestock: Jill Robbins talked about Jr. Livestock updates. Keep your articles and photos for the paper coming. 4-H members can take their own animal pictures. If they are not acceptable, fair committee will give you a chance to make them up at the fair. Clubs, make sure you know what assignments your club is responsible for at the fair.

Fundraising Committee: Jill Walker talked about the fundraising committee ideas. Come back with ideas from our club on what your club would support. Some ideas were dinner dance and golf tournaments.

Next council meeting is May 22, 2006 at 6:30 p.m.

There will be no Council Meeting in June.

Meeting was adjourned at 8:33 p.m. by Sherry Falge.
